ARREST OF JAMES F. CLARK.—James F. Clark, late Commonwealth's Attorney for Prince William county and the unanimous and persistent choice of the Prince William delegation in the last Senatorial Convention, of whose late exploits an extended notice appeared in Thursday's Gazette, arrived in Fredericksburg on the train from Washington last Thursday, but left that town immediately on a horse hired from the livery stable of Mr. Thomas Haydon, stating that he was going a few miles in the country. Yesterday morning he was arrested at the residence of his father-in-law, in King George county, about ten miles from Fredericksburg, by Sergeant Edgington on the charge of abducting and carrying away Miss Fannie Fowell, brought back to Fredericksburg and taken before a Justice of the peace, but, waiving an examination, was committed to jail to appear before a Magistrate of Prince William county within thirty days, in default of bail to the amount of $600. Last night, however, he employed counsel, who sued out a writ of habeas corpus, upon which he was brought before Judge Goodrich, this morning, and after an examination was remanded to jail to await a requisition from the authorities of Prince William county. The Judge afterwards reconsidered the case and determined to hold Clark for examination at 4 o'clock next Monday evening. It is understood that Clark left Miss Fowell, with whom he eloped about a month since, in Washington, and her relatives have gone there to look for her. The arrest was made at the instance of Miss Fowell's father, who having heard that Clark had gone to Fredericksburg, was so afraid that Mr. Fowell would shoot him on sight, that he refused to come on the street until that gentleman had been bound over to keep the peace. A few days ago a gentleman residing at Manassas received a letter from Clark asking particularly about Miss Fowell of whose elopement he said he had just heard.

Y. M. C. A.—The Association met in special service last night in their room to address words of farewell and encouragement to Mr. W. U. Herbert, on the eve of his departure for his new field of labor, President O'Neal in the chair. After singing, the opening prayer was made by Rev. Dr. J. L. Killgore. The President stated the object of the meeting as above, and addressed his closing remarks to Mr. Herbert in affectionate and encouraging language. Mr. Herbert responded, speaking of his regret at leaving the Association, and of the happy moments spent in the reunion of the brethren, and alluded to the part he had performed in the work of the society during the ten years of his connection with it as an active member. The meeting was then opened for voluntary speaking, singing and prayer. Messrs. Whitteley and Ward led in prayer, commending the brother to the grace and guidance of our Heavenly Father. Messrs. Whitteley, E. J. Simpson, Patton, Grigg and Rev. Dr. Killgore delivered addresses of affection and encouragement to the brother. The exercises were interspersed with voluntary singing of hymns or parts of hymns familiar to the Association, and touching the object for which the meeting was held. The meeting then adjourned after singing the hymn, "Say brothers who you meet us," and ending one of the most blessed seasons that the reporter ever witnessed.

INFRACTION OF THE FISHING LAWS.—The Port Tobacco Times gives the following account of the seizure of Capt. Faunce's vessel for violating the Maryland fishing laws, a notice of which appeared in the Gazette at the time of its occurrence. "Capt. Faunce had been hauling on the Potomac that day in violation of the law, and had moored his vessel in the Vicomieu and sent his seine boat up the river, where his men were engaged in hauling at the time of the capture. The law prohibits non-residents from hauling a seine on the Potomac within five hundred yards of the beach, also in any of the creeks and inlets within the county. The capturing party were rather remiss in leaving the vessel in charge of the Captain, the night after the capture, and trusting to his honor of not to attempt an escape. The absence of the vessel the next morning proved to them not only their mistake, but how little Capt. F. valued his plighted word. It is the subject of much regret with our citizens that Capt. F. was enabled to make his escape, as we understand, he has been denouncing the law as worthless and void, and does not hesitate to threaten armed resistance against any attempt to capture him under its provisions."

NEW CATTLE MARKET.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:—It is probable that a large cattle rest will soon be established near the Baltimore and Ohio depot in this city, where cattle and stock coming from long journeys may get food and water. It is said also that a drovers' rest, fitted with all conveniences for the comfort of stock, shade and water, will shortly be established on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad near the city, and that the drovers' rest near Georgetown will then be discontinued, provision being made by law for a single cattle market and inspection place. There is a plan on foot to require that the cattle and stock passing through this city for Baltimore and the more northern markets shall not be allowed to leave here unless in good condition, watered, fed and secured from a feverish condition, which entails suffering upon the animal and may become highly injurious to the wholesomeness of their meat. This plan will be put in operation at an early date, probably upon the arrival of the cattle train here from the Southwest, next Tuesday.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' Institute for the city and county of Alexandria will commence on Monday morning, at 9 o'clock, in the hall occupied by the Board of Common Council, over the Adams Express Office. Carne will lecture on "The Method of Teaching the Alphabetical Sounds," and Benjamin Halliwell, on "The Best Method of Teaching Arithmetic." All the teachers of public schools are expected to attend, and teachers of private schools as well as the friends of education generally, are cordially invited to be present.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

From New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—It is thought that Gen. Stocum will be the candidate of the Democrats for Governor.

The Tribune says that Controller Connolly has not been further than fifty miles from New York—most of the time in Winchester county; and that he will turn State's evidence; and that his testimony will absolutely convict Thwaites and twenty other King officials whose names have not, so far, been published. He will first appear to testify against the voucher thieves, under Attorney General Barlow's instructions.

Thos. H. Danes, aged 40, a wealthy English-American, and wholesale lace importer, attempted suicide four times yesterday. He first ran a needle into his throat; then rushed to a drug store, and, seizing a bottle marked "poison," swallowed the contents; then stabbed himself with a pen-knife; and, when seized and rescued for the third time, he broke away and plunged a butcher-knife into his breast, inflicting a wound which will probably prove fatal. Delirium tremens was the cause.
